Saying Nothing Loudly

Over the past few months, we — the young-est members of the Social Design Studio — have been exploring everyday life in all its oddities, wonders, horrors, simplicity, and irony.

Through this journey, we've transformed our observations, insights and question marks into pieces of art. Now, we are excited to share these creations with you and enjoy a vibrant evening filled with conversation and good company.

We say it:
shouting,
singing,
whispering,
cooling,
grumbling,
foaming,
rustling,
chewing,
clanking
& very quietly.
